MESSAGE FROM THE HEADTEACHER

Dear Parents, Carers,

Sports Day took place on Tuesday 16th of June. Congratulations to Brampton who were the overall winners!

Please be aware that if a student asks a member of staff to verify his/her passport, please note the rules have changed in that we cannot use the school's address as your own, they will ask for the staff member for their own home address. Therefore, we cannot assist with passport verification.

Tickets for Summer Soiree on the 30th June and the Summer Concert on the 16th July are available to purchase on TicketSource: www.ticketsource.com/beths-grammar-school

Best wishes,

Richard Blyghton

YEAR 11 LAST DAY

Well done to all our Year 11 Students on completing their GCSE public exams! This week saw the final paper and students can now put down the books and revision guides and look forward to a well-deserved summer break.

To celebrate their commitment and dedication during the exam season and also to mark the end of their KS4 journey at Beths, we held celebration barbeque on Monday, complete with an inflatable assault course! Lots of shirt signing and photos to mark our time together as a year group before Sixth Form. Thanks to the Parents Association for funding this.

As this key stage 4 chapter closes, a new and exciting one begins. Good luck for Results Day!
