MESSAGE FROM THE HEADTEACHER

Dear Parents, Carers,

Sports Day took place on Tuesday 16th of June. Congratulations to Brampton who were the overall winners!

Please be aware that if a student asks a member of staff to verify his/her passport, please note the rules have changed in that we cannot use the school's address as your own, they will ask for the staff member for their own home address. Therefore, we cannot assist with passport verification.

Tickets for Summer Soiree on the 30th June and the Summer Concert on the 16th July are available to purchase on TicketSource: www.ticketsource.com/beths-grammar-school

Best wishes,

Richard Blyghton

STUDENT SUCCESS

Dear Mr Blyghton,

As the hockey season has come to an end, I wanted to let you know that two Beths pupils have performed exceptionally well at hockey this season and received awards.

Rowan M has been playing hockey since a young age with the club and this season he has broken into both the Boys U14 and U16 sides, playing above his age group for the latter.

His is an accomplished defender who frequently comes to the rescue with last ditch tackles that have prevented numerous goals. Not only is he a strong player of the game, but he conducts himself with great professionalism and maturity. As a result, he was awarded the U14s Boys Player of the Year 25/26.

In a similar vein, Sean has been playing hockey with us since a young age. This season he has been playing for both our Boys U16s side and our Men's Development Team. His development in hockey has been impressive in recent years, and he is a solid player for both sides.

Additionally, Sean is on our Young Leaders Programme. This is for young players who want to develop their skills more broadly in the sport, with coaching, umpiring, first aid and leadership modules. He willingly volunteers to support our younger groups in an assistant coach capacity. As a result, Sean was awarded U16s Boys Player of the Year 25/26.

Overall, we are exceptionally proud of both boys. They are excellent players with exceptional attitudes towards the sport and have great prospects for the future. May I also add that as you know Christopher P and Alistair M also pupils at the school are progressing well in the sport, both are playing regularly for our Men's teams and showing great development.

We remain committed to sport in the community and welcome players of all ages and abilities. We are based in Bexley Village as you know, playing across Kent, so if any of your students wish to try hockey or develop their existing ability, we are always open to new members. My contact details are below.

Yours Sincerely

Mark Plowright
